Conference: Personal Evangelism for Ordinary People September 10, 2016

Imagine:

- You confidently answer a question about why you follow Jesus.
- Your friend asks you how you became a Christian and you give a clear story.
- You share the gospel story without being tongue-tied.

Just this week, I met a church member who felt that evangelism was not doable because he felt he had

- no talent,
- no skill,
- nor verbally eloquent like his pastor.

My friend lacked any confidence that he could witness to anyone. [\[Read more...\]](#)

5 Ways to Bless Your Neighbor

Dave Ferguson shares five ways to bless your neighbors.

He says,

“From the very beginning, God’s way of reaching and restoring the world has always been through what I would call a blessing strategy...how do we in a very practical way that’s theologically grounded explain to people how they could bless people in places they are incarnating?”

Conference – Evangelism Ignite, Richmond VA, June 3-4

Has your passion for personal evangelism diminished?

Does fear stand in your way of sharing your faith in Jesus with friends?

Do you want to find a comfortable way to share your faith, without being forced to stand on the street corner?

Passion is the fuel that helps you persevere through the blockages and inertia that stands in your way. [\[Read more...\]](#)

“I have non-Christian friends, and spend time with them, but I’m so afraid of ruining my friendship. But I am so afraid to start a conversation about Jesus.”

Does that describe you?

You have your own routines of daily life and if you are like me, you do not want evangelism to be an appointment at 4pm on Friday in the local park.

You don’t want to be the dude on the street corner.

The awkward conversations with strangers scare you.

You don’t want to be perceived as a condemning person, nor the other negative stereotypes.

There is a better way

Example of Spiritual Thirst: A Wild Conversation

I was in Panama last month on a business trip.

I had lunch with one of the people that I met.

He was a German business man living in Panama.

He left Germany behind and trying to start his life over in Panama on the crest of a real estate building boom.

This is when an example of spiritual thirst appeared. [\[Read more...\]](#)

7 Ways to Pray for Your Lost Friends

No one prayed for me. At least no one has ever reported praying for me.

My parents were not religious in any way. But they choose to drop me off every Sunday night at a church youth group when I entered 7th grade.

For months, I didn't want to go. But once I made friends there, I changed my tune. I wanted to be there.

But no one I knew was praying for me. Not that I have ever known.

Yet Jesus found me anyway and I'm grateful for God's sovereignty to help me become a follower of Christ.
